-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 23 April 2007.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Prelim. Amdt/Amendment

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the Amendment filed 04/23/2007.

In view of the Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 18-24 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Atsmon et al (US 6607136 B1). This Office Action is therefore made Non-Final.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 24 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Re claim 24, line 23: Substitute "j)" with -- i) --.

Re claim 24, line 25: Substitute "k)" with -- j) --.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 20 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Re claim 20, lines 2-3: "said database stores loyalty point data in association with the user identifier" lacks antecedent basis.

Re claim 21, lines 2-4: "said database stores information regarding a user's triggers for presenting alerts to the user in association with the user identifier" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 18-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Atsmon et al (US 6607136 B1).

Re claim 18: Atsmon et al discloses a system for customer-specific communication between a customer and a retail establishment, comprising:

a) in a retail store, a reader device for reading a user-identifier (i.e., digital ID) presented by a user in a physical embodiment 10 (col. 12, lines 46+ and col. 30, lines 50-67);

Art Unit: 2876

b) database 211e coupled to the reader device, the database 211e storing records, in association with a user identifier (i.e., user's account), containing the following data to the extent provided by the user: name, address, credit card number, digital wallet data, preferred portal and login data for portal (fig. 2; col. 59, line 59 through col. 60, line 4);

c) means for accessing the database to open a connection to the user's digital wallet to facilitate payment via the digital wallet account upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier to the reader device (fig. 29; col. 69, line 1 through col. 70, line 49);

d) means for accessing user information stored in the database and using such information for signing the user up for support services, upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier to the reader device (fig. 46; col. 45, line 37 through col. 46, line 19);

e) a client computer 451 serves as a kiosk in the retail store for displaying the internet for the user to view and use (col. 53, line 67 through col. 54, line 17 and fig. 45; col. 91, line 29 through col. 93, line 17);

f) means, coupled to the kiosk, for accessing the user's preferred portal and login data from the database and for logging the user into the preferred portal, upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier to the reader device (col. 9, lines 1-12; col. 16, lines 25+; col. 91, line 49 through col. 93, line 17 and col. 101, lines 10-21).

Re claim 19: Atsmon et al discloses a system for customer-specific communication between a customer and a retail establishment, comprising:

a) in a retail store, a reader device for reading a user identifier presented in a physical embodiment by a user (col. 12, lines 46+ and col. 30, lines 50-67);

b) a database coupled to the reader, the database storing, in association with the user identifier, records storing loyalty point data (fig. 47; col. 100, line 56 through col. 101, line 59);

c) in a retail store, a client computer 451 serves a kiosk coupled to the database and coupled to the internet, for displaying internet content (col. 53, line 67 through col. 54, line 17 and fig. 45; col. 91, line 29 through col. 93, line 17);

d) means for allowing user to acquire loyalty points by interacting with specified content via use of the internet at the kiosk (col. 98, lines 48+).

Re claim 20: wherein the database stores loyalty point data in association with the user identifier and wherein the system further comprises:

g) means for allowing user to acquire loyalty points by interacting with specified content (e.g., advertisement) via use of the internet at the kiosk (col. 98, lines 48+ and col. 101, lines 5-37).

Re claim 21: wherein the database stores information regarding a user's triggers for presenting alerts to the user in association with the user identifier, further comprising:

g) means for triggering alerts to the user when the user presents the physical embodiment of their user identifier (fig. 28; col. 18, line 28 through col. 20, line 31).

Re claim 22: wherein the means for accessing and using user information for signing the user up for support services includes means to set up an e-wallet upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier, populating data fields using stored identifying information (fig. 29; col. 66, line 56 through col. 68, line 51).

Re claim 23: wherein the means for accessing and using user information for signing the user up for support services includes means for setting up an email account upon presentment of the physical embodiment of a user identifier, using stored identifying information (col. 19, lines 1-12).

Re claim 24: Atsmon et al discloses a system for customer-specific communication between a customer and a retail establishment, comprising:

a) in a retail store, a reader device for reading a user-identifier presented by a user in a physical embodiment (col. 12, lines 46+ and col. 30, lines 50-67);

b) database coupled to the reader device, the database storing records, in association with a user identifier, containing the following data to the extent provided by the user: name, address, credit card number, digital wallet data, preferred portal and login data for portal, loyalty points, trigger alerts (figs. 2 & 4; col. 59, line 59 through col. 60, line 4; col. 100, line 56 through col. 101, line 59);

c) means for accessing the database to open a connection to the user's digital wallet to facilitate payment via the digital wallet account upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier to the reader device (fig. 29; col. 69, line 1 through col. 70, line 49);

d) means for accessing user information stored in the database and using such information for signing the user up for support services, upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier to the reader device (fig. 46; col. 45, line 37 through col. 46, line 19);

e) kiosk in the retail store for displaying the internet for the user to view and use (col. 53, line 67 through col. 54, line 17 and fig. 45; col. 91, line 29 through col. 93, line 17);

f) means, coupled to the kiosk, for accessing the user's preferred portal and login data from the database, upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier to the reader device (col. 9, lines 1-12; col. 16, lines 25+; col. 91, line 49 through col. 93, line 17 and col. 101, lines 10-21);

g) means for allowing user to acquire loyalty points by interacting with specified content via us of the internet at a kiosk (col. 98, lines 48+ and col. 101, lines 5-37);

h) means for triggering alerts to the user when the user presents the physical embodiment of their user identifier (fig. 28; col. 18, line 28 through col. 20, line 31);

i) means to set up wireless services upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier, using data stored in database (col. 101, lines 10-21);

j) means for setting up an email account upon presentment of the physical embodiment of the user identifier, using stored identifying information (col. 19, lines 1-12).

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 18-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
